Course Length: Half day

Course Tutor: Andrew Whitehouse

Audience: Teachers, SENCOs, LSAs

Course Content

- What does it mean to have Dyspraxia? An introduction to the needs of the learner and the associated impairments. This will include developing academic and physical skills.
- Investigating communication difficulties and simple strategies to overcome them.
- How can the classroom practitioner ensure a Dyspraxia friendly environment? A simple and effective guide to adapting the classroom to meet the needs of learners with Dyspraxia, whilst continuing to fully include their peers.
- Differentiated - age and level appropriate methods for creating and presenting quick, efficient and accurate interventions.

This training is supported by extremely useful workshop activities and case studies. At this session there will be a wealth of books and resources for reference. This fun and informative workshop will enable delegates to work more effectively with learners with Dyspraxia and provide the knowledge and understanding needed to create appropriate interventions.
